

EID Committee Mission Statement

The Robertson School Equity, Inclusion and Diversity (EID) Committee will seek to identify, review and make recommendations regarding the School's equity, inclusion and diversity efforts. The charge of the committee is to work with the faculty, staff and leadership to:

- Meet regularly to review, make recommendations, and decisions to help the School make tangible progress in its equity, inclusion and diversity efforts
- Prioritize EID by regularly reporting the committee's work at faculty meetings
- Review and identify cultural awareness celebrations to promote to students, faculty, staff and leadership
- Review and identify EID events, scholarships, and other opportunities, in order to promote to students, faculty, staff and leadership
- Help the School to review and achieve its EID goals as identified in the Equity, Inclusion and Diversity Plan
- Help identify EID training that is needed and useful for faculty, staff and leadership on a regular basis. With organizational assistance, the committee can help promote and implement EID training.
- Interface with Robertson School Advising, Committee Chairs, leadership, faculty and staff on an as-needed basis, to review and make recommendations regarding EID efforts
- Interface with other campus EID Committees and organizations, in order to represent Robertson School, gather information, and implement ideas from other EID groups

Committee membership will consist of Robertson School faculty and staff interested in helping the school achieve its equity, inclusion and diversity goals. The committee's chair is appointed by the School Director.
